

Interfaith Alliance of the Bluegrass – Celebration of Gratitude

Tuesday, November 27, 6:00 to 7:30

Temple Adath Israel (124 N. Ashland Ave.)

A vegetarian meal will be served.

Please bring a salad, side dish or dessert if you can.

Please bring a can or two of food
for the God's Pantry Food Bank

Members of different faiths will talk briefly about how they give thanks. People of all faiths, from Buddhists to Baha'is to Christians to Jews, have rituals of thanks that range from grace before each meal to prayers about the miraculous human body.

A representative from the God's Pantry Food Bank will talk about the steps it is taking to increase distribution capacity, and provide more needed food to over 330,000 people in poverty living in its 50-county service area.
